THE 8(A) PROGRAM ADVANTAGE

FAR Subpart 19.8 allows agencies to award sole source contracts to the SBA on behalf of an eligible 8(a) firm of their choice. No competition is necessary. Service contracts can be awarded up to $4,500,000.

Advantages to 8(a) Directed Sole-Source Awards:

- Streamlined acquisition process
- Selection of contractor of choice
- Support agency's achievement of 8(a) contracting goals
- Expedited process – can be completed in two weeks

Contracting Officers can award a sole-source 8(a) contract if:

- You determine that the qualified small business is responsible
- The resulting contract can be awarded at a fair market price
- The government estimate doesn't exceed $4.5 million for services

Contracting Officer's responsibilities in connection with the 8(a) Business Development program are outlined in Title 13 Part 124 Subpart A of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) and the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR).

CHOOSE TACFI TO KICK DOWN THE DOORS YOU NEED OPENED

ABOUT US

At TACFI, we are driven by a profound commitment to supporting Special Operations Forces (SOF), conventional forces, and law enforcement professionals in transitioning to new careers. Recognizing these individuals' extraordinary dedication, work ethic, and specialized training, we believe in channeling their invaluable skills toward fulfilling civilian roles. Our mission is rooted in the understanding that the expertise gained in high-stakes environments is unique and immensely valuable in diverse industries.

By facilitating the translation of their experience, we aim to empower these individuals to seamlessly transition into new roles, ensuring that their exceptional skills continue to impact beyond their service significantly. This commitment is not just a business objective; it's a recognition of the importance of harnessing the untapped potential of these remarkable professionals and contributing to their successful and rewarding post-service careers.

WHY CHOOSE TACFI

Leadership Development

Leadership is ingrained in our culture, empowering team members to inspire others and cultivate a collaborative, high-performance environment.

Cross-Functional Support

Our team possesses unique and often underestimated expertise to drive success at every operational phase and echelon.

Exceptional Talent Selection Process

Our meticulous recruitment ensures a workforce of highly skilled and culturally aligned professionals akin to the rigorous standards of Army Rangers.

Proven Track Record

With a history of success, we deliver top-tier training services, from research and development support to operational readiness training, ensuring military programs excel.

Tailored Training Solutions

Our approach prioritizes customization, integrating client objectives into training scripts for maximum relevance and effectiveness.

Continuous Improvement

We actively seek feedback, participate in reviews, and recommend enhancements to keep training programs up-to-date and aligned with evolving requirements.

Program Management

We excel as reliable partners in managing complex projects, maintaining resource accountability, and adhering to rigorous standards.

Resilience and Adaptability

Like Army Rangers, we thrive in dynamic environments, embracing challenges as opportunities for growth and demonstrating remarkable adaptability.

Problem-Solving Skills

We prioritize critical thinking, enabling our team to excel in solving complex problems and driving innovation within the organization.

Culture of Constructive Dissent

We encourage and value constructive dissent, fostering a culture where solutions drive excellence.

*"At TACFI, we've specially selected a team with a Special Operations Forces (SOF) mindset and diverse expertise. Our focus on agility, adaptability, and mission-driven solutions enables us to meet challenging organizational needs with precision and impact, establishing us as a small yet powerful force in the industry."
CEO, Rod Rodriguez (USA Ret.) rod@tacfi.us*
